

Job description

Internship Environmental Monitoring & Evaluation

WeForest (non-profit)
Flexible schedule, telework

Organization info

About Us

Founded 2009.

Mission: building upon corporate and scientific partnerships, WeForest empowers communities to sustainably advance and implement innovative, high-standard, scalable and lasting solutions to restore forest landscapes.

Programs: a Belgium-based non-profit organization, WF works with communities and local partners to develop scalable Forest Landscape Restoration projects mostly in tropical regions to sustain nature's diversity, benefit our climate, and support human well-being. Since 2009, we have grown very fast: after having restored 55,000 acres, we recently developed a project capacity to reach 210,000 acres (100 million trees) by 2024.

Position summary

The scope of the internship is to investigate what remote sensing techniques are currently being used to monitor landscape restoration (including, but not limited to tree planting) and to identify which of these techniques are the most (a) effective, (b) cost efficient, and (c) time efficient. The work will allow the intern to learn and expand his or her knowledge base within the mentioned areas. WeForest is based in Belgium, however given the actual sanitary context, the intern will work from home and the internship can be conducted anywhere in the world with reliable internet connectivity.

Areas of responsibility

Under the supervision of the Monitoring & Evaluation Manager, the intern will perform the following tasks:

- desk-based literature review
- annotated bibliography
- matrix/table presenting techniques, types of landscape restoration interventions monitored, and relative efficacy and efficiency of each technique.

Skills/experience

- Highly inspired by our goal to make Earth a better, cooler place
- Currently pursuing or already has a MSc in GIS, Remote Sensing, Geomatics, Environmental Monitoring or any related field
- Ability to work in team as well as independently
- English proficiency

Period and duration

Any period of time between September and December 2021 for part-time or full-time work.

How to apply

Please send your complete application to recruitment@weforest.org (mentioning the internship title in the subject of the email) which must include your resumé and motivation letter.